

EMORY UNIVERSITY

KING WEEK

celebrating the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

JANUARY 21 - 27, 2019

21 Emory Day On | 11am

Cox Hall Ballroom

Sign up at: www.volunteeremory.org.

22 King Week Keynote | 4pm

Cox Hall Ballroom

Leonard Pitts, Jr., Syndicated Columnist and winner of the 2004 Pulitzer Prize

Sponsored by the Department of African American Studies

Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration | 7:30pm

Old Church / Oxford, GA

"The King Letters: A Retrospective" with Dr. Gregory Ellison, Julian Reid, and Tavares Stephens

24 MLK Community Service Awards | 4pm

Goizueta Business School Auditorium (W525)

Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration | 6pm

Emory School of Law Tull Auditorium

"Revisiting Dr. King's Theory of Power, Love, and Justice" with remarks by

Dr. Robert M. Franklin, Jr., James T. and Berta R. Laney Professor of Moral Leadership,
Candler School of Theology

Social Justice Dialogues | 7pm

Cox Hall Ballroom

Sponsored by Emory Conversation Project and Volunteer Emory

27 MLK Worship | 8:30am OR 11am

Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church / Atlanta, GA

Dr. Robert M. Franklin, Jr. preaching

Beloved Community: Christian Worship at Emory | 11am

Cannon Chapel - Emory University / Atlanta, GA

The Reverend Dr. Melva L. Sampson 02T 17G, Assistant Professor of Preaching and Practical Theology, Wake Forest University School of Divinity

Lunch following in Brooks Commons.

RELIGIOUSLIFE.EMORY.EDU

Emory University King Week events brought to you by: Department of African American Studies, Emory Campus Life, Glenn Memorial UMC, Goizueta Business School, Oxford College Religious & Spiritual Life, Residence Life, Rollins School of Public Health, Office of Spiritual & Religious Life, and Volunteer Emory.